TOMMY

ENGLISH · LAW · AI

PRACTICE APPLICATION RESUME

SOUTHWEST JIAOTONG UNIVERSITY

School of Foreign Languages · English Major

w3194510963@gmail.com

PROFILE

English major developing public speaking, cross-cultural communication and project coordination through competitions, campus leadership and volunteer service.

KEY NUMBERS

2 Second prizes

7 / 28 Moot court rank

50 h Volunteer service

81 h Second classroom

568 / 521 CET-4 / CET-6

FOCUS

Public Speaking
Cross-cultural Communication
Project Coordination
Volunteer Service

EDUCATION & POSITIONING

- B.A. candidate in English, Southwest Jiaotong University, 2025 cohort. Focused on communication, rules and project collaboration.
- CET-4: 568; CET-6: 521; ETIC Intermediate: Good, 223. Freshman GPA: fall 3.6/4.0, spring 3.8/4.0.

COMPETITIONS & PROJECT PRACTICE

- Wrote and delivered The Window and the Stone (Second Prize, 84.33), using a Suzhou garden and the Yungang Grottoes to present cultural exchange clearly to a live audience.
- Quest Cup Moot Court: analyzed competition rules, prepared team arguments and earned a university-level Merit Award, ranking 7th among 28 teams.
- Cross-border English livestream practicum for Qionglai intangible-cultural-heritage liquor: provided English script backup, live transitions and supplementary explanations; Team Second Prize.

CAMPUS LEADERSHIP

- Comprehensive English class representative (freshman year): coordinated course notices and assignments, organized final-review materials and supported classroom operations.
- Organization Department member, School of Foreign Languages Student Union: supported on-site setup, attendance and order for the welcome gala, university sports meeting and multicultural campus event.
- Youth Volunteers Union Project Department member, Sep 2025-Jul 2026 (Excellent assessment); formally appointed Head of Course Development in July 2026.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

- 50 recorded volunteer hours; 81 total Second Classroom hours, including 26 hours in social practice and volunteer service.
- Served twice at the Self-Study Examination site. Recognized as an Outstanding Volunteer in the 2026 multilingual campus bus project.
- Delivered additional service in Gongga Cup volleyball, university anniversary, children's community care, five-class alma mater outreach and hometown promotion.

WORKING STYLE

- Uses structured communication in public speaking, live transitions and cross-cultural settings; turns one-off tasks into reusable materials and clear handoffs.
- Works with responsibility, coordination and reflection in student organizations, volunteer projects and competition operations.